

Cindy Seaton

Cindy comes to this area with a wide range of training and experience. She began her training at Miss Tommie's School of Dance in Winnsboro, LA at an early age; ultimately advancing into the assistant teacher position. Cindy is a former member of Twin City Ballet in Monroe, LA under the direction of Linda Lavender Ford, where she had the opportunity to study with world renowned dance teachers and choreographers. Through these diverse mediums, she has acquired training in ballet, pointe, jazz, tap, lyrical, and tumbling. Cindy has owned and operated her own dance studios for more than 25 years.

Cindy is also a member of Twin City Ballet Professional Board and Dance Teachers United. She has won many awards with her competition teams as well as wins in overall competitions. Her competition team has even won Overall National Title twice. Cindy never tires of learning new steps or techniques, and remains up to date by attending many workshops and conventions yearly.

Despite her rigorous teaching schedule, Cindy has held many cheer and dance line camps. She has currently choreographed for nine different Dancelines across Northern Louisiana. Cindy Seaton Dance Academy has been host for workshops with many well known teachers.
