

Michael Gasper

Michael Gasper is from Charenton, Louisiana and quickly fell in love with dance upon the start of his training. Just after two years of studying, Michael's extraordinary talent and natural ability was noticed and he began teaching and choreographing for studios and high schools throughout Louisiana. Michael continues to train regularly and is intent on making himself present at all conventions that come his way. He has received numerous scholarships from La Dance Magic and The Pulse on Tour and in addition was awarded Senior Performer of the Weekend at La Dance Magic just last year. Michael brings forth a very unique style of contemporary fused with improvisation as well as specializing in jazz. Michael's classes can be described as very inspirational and a learning experience while bringing out the best in each dancer in the room. With an ever-growing passion and love for dance, he is a judge for Starz Dance Competitions and Raww Energy Dance Competition; where he also taught a masterclass. Recently becoming faculty for NTG Dance competition and convention, Michael continues to study with various master teachers and choreographers while further educating himself and perfecting his craft. This season Michael has joined the staff of national talent competition and convention; "Celebration Talent Competition".
